

Melton, Mar, Serean, Mailkoff win Sunset Lanes Classic

To start our 42st season, we had a great season opener at Sunset Lanes on September 18, 2016. It was a successful event with everything going smooth all day as is tradition at Sunset Lanes.

Invasion from the south? All four divisions were won by bowlers from Salem to Talent, OR at this season opener. Melton & Serean came from the Medford area, Mar from Eugene area, and Mailkoff from Salem. We added $470.00 to our payout thanks to the help and support of Storm Bowling Products.

In our unlimited “Classic” division (200 & up): Jacob Melton of Medford qualified 4th, then won 4 of his 6 matches while averaging 240 in the finals to climb up and claim his first Classic title with 2599 and earn his banner which is navy blue with white letters. Lane Phillips of Mollala spared, then went off the sheet in his first finals match. The cut was 937.

Payout:

First Place: Jacob Melton-Medford, $65

2nd Place: Donovan Grubaugh-Salem, $50

3rd Place: Carlos Serrano-Salem

Jacob Melton, Donovan Grubaugh, Carlos Serrano

In the “AA” Division (180-199): Michael Mar of Junction City qualified 2nd, then won 4 of his 6 matches to win the title with 2477 and earn a star on his banner. Seth Chilcutt all the way from Bend finished 2nd with 2296. The cut was 986.

Awards:

1st Place: Michael Mar-Junction City, $90

2nd Place: Seth Chilcutt-Bend, $75

3rd Place: Reagan Lorey-Vancouver, $50

Michael Mar, Seth Chilcutt, Reagan Lorey

In the "A" Division (156-179): Liam Srean of Talent, OR qualified 4th, then won 4 of his 6 matches averaging 188 in the process to jump all the way up and win his 1st Classic title with 2163 and earn his banner which is black with white letters.

The cut was 876.

Awards:

1st Place: Liam Srean-Talent, $100

2nd Place: Elijah Chin-Tigard, $80

Tie 3rd Place: Tom Ellis-Molalla, $55

Tie 3rd Place: Ashton Yamasaki-Portland, $55

Liam Srean, Elijah Chin, Ashton Yamasaki

In the "B" Division (155 & under): Isaac Mailkoff of Salem averaged 153 at the Classics last season. He started this season opener averaging 163 to qualify 4th, then went on a scoring blitz averaging a whopping 204 in the finals, winning all 6 matches to win his first Classic title with a monster 2222 and earn his banner which is black with red letters. The cut was 753.

Awards:

1st Place: Isaac Mailkoff-Salem, $65

2nd Place: Keri Kindrick-Springfield, $50

3rd Place: Anastasia Byrd-Aloha

Isaac Mailkoff, Keri Kindrick, Anastasia Byrd

Bailey Peters & Hunter Bower both of Vancouver rolled high game out of the cut and each earned $25.

It was great to be at Sunset Lanes. Everything went well. Industry standard setting customer service and we are already signed up for next September as well at their new center, King Pins in May! Thank you Sunset Lanes for another great event!

We are at Town & Country Lanes in Keizer for Singles next month. Keep in mind the season competition for the All Star Teams. To earn points, you must bowl. Check in is from 8 to 9 AM. Have a safe trip.

